Navy to Send Down 2 Men to Find Thresher

By JAMES CALOGERO

ABOARD THE USS FORT SNELLING, at Sea (AP) — The Navy's deep-diving bathyscaphe Trieste descended a mile and a half to the dark ocean floor of the North Atlantic today in search of the sunken submarine Thresher.

The dive was made after a Navy search official said there was evidence, at last, that search craft had found the spot where the Thresher sank April with 129 men. In the spherical gondola suspended beneath the orange and white search craft, when it started down, were Lt. Cmdr. Donald Keach, 33, a Somerville, Mass., native, and Kenneth McKenzie, 61, a civilian attached to the Naval Electronics Laboratory, San Diego, Calif.

The descent today followed several hours of preparations which began after daybreak. The Trieste was loaded for the descent by the addition of a score of bags of buckshot placed on her deck.

The dive was made in a moderate sea, with 4- to 6-foot waves. The wind was 15 knots from the northwest.

As preparations for the vital descent were completed, Capt. Frank A. Andrews, in charge of search operations, said in a shipboard interview:

"We have evidence to feel we are at the spot where Thresher sank, but you can never know about these things until you get down there and look around. That will be the job of Trieste."

The Navy and scientists were led to a small area of the Atlantic by what they described as a fairly heavy concentration of debris at the bottom and three separate magnetic contacts.

The spot is 220 miles off Boston and only a few hundred yards from the last known position of Thresher when she sank with the loss of 129 men in a test dive last

Church Is Significant to Germans

By JOHN BAUSMAN

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — A red sandstone church, built in unusual circular form and located in downtown Frankfurt, was a special historical significance for Germans.

It is the St. Paul's church and, along with Frankfurt's convenient central location, is one of the main reasons why President Kennedy is stopping off at this fifth largest city of West Germany Tuesday.

The neo-classical St. Paul's church, or Paulskirche as it is known to Germans, was built in the early 19th century and seems architecturally insignificant when compared with Europe's inspiring cathedrals.

But the Paulskirche has the kind of tradition that suits Kennedy and provides an appropriate setting for his major speech in Germany.

It was here that the German states held a national assembly in 1848 in an attempt to unify the country under a liberal constitution. The effort failed, but the church remained a symbol of German liberal nationalism.

Like more than a third of all Frankfurt buildings, it was destroyed in World War II. Soon after the war, money was collected for its reconstruction as a congress hall and memorial to mark the 100th anniversary of the original Paulskirche assembly.

To the American visitor the city still is very German, with outdoor cafes, beer and sausage stands, fountains and flower pots on busy squares.

Frankfurt is the home of 680,000 persons and, excluding West Berlin, is West Germany's fifth largest city, after Hamburg, Munich, Cologne and Essen. It is the country's chief banking center, continuing in the tradition of the famous banking family of Rothschild.

Heavy Damage in Local Accident

Yesterday at N. Pine and West Avenue A autos driven by the Rev. Raymond Franks and B.B. Verser collided, City Police reported. Both Mrs. Franks and Mrs. Verser sustained injuries. Neither was considered in serious condition. Investigating City Officers said both vehicles were heavily damaged.

4 Negroes Attend Movie at P.B.

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Four Negroes sat in the white section of a Pine Bluff movie theater (Malco) Friday night.

Theater Manager Bruce Young said there was no incident. The Negroes saw a double feature.

Young said there were about 150 white persons in the downstairs section and about 40 Negroes in a balcony customarily reserved for their race.

Young said President Kennedy's recent appeal for desegregation of movie houses was responsible for the action.

International Peace Pledged by New Pope

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI pledged today to do everything possible to promote international peace based on truth, justice, love and freedom. He called for cordial relations between the Vatican and every country in the world.

The new pontiff addressed greetings to all the world's peoples, nations, leaders and governments at a special audience for diplomats accredited to the Vatican.

The new Pope said the Church respects the "dignity and mission of each nation in the world, both those distinguished by a long historic and cultural past and those who have just risen in our days to independence and a place in international institutions."

"To all and each of these peoples, their chiefs and their governments, the new Pope addresses at this moment, with a heart full of emotion and confidence, his salute and his wishes."

"He wishes to see evolved in the direction of a more cordial and beneficial collaboration, their relations with the Holy See."

Pope Paul's words seemed to be directed beyond the nations represented by their ambassadors at the meeting.

The United States and the Soviet Union are among the nations having no diplomatic relations with the Vatican. However, the Pope's first meeting with a chief of state from abroad will be with President Kennedy on July 2.

British Urged to Delay Withdrawal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., has urged Great Britain to delay its scheduled withdrawal from British Guiana in South America because, "I would not like to see another communist country in Latin America."

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called the wife of Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan of Guiana a "full-fledged communist." The prime minister also is an acknowledged Marxist and their nation has been in turbulence from a more than two-month old strike.

Fulbright also charged that Guiana has been receiving aid from communist Cuba.

The senator made his remarks in a television interview Sunday.

Bone Returned to Former Post

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Roy Bone, supervisor of the experimental food stamp program for Independence County, has been returned to his former post as county welfare director at his own request.

Both Wood and Phillips endorsed the return of Bone to the job. Urbin Carpenter of Batesville was selected to head the food stamp program until Bone's successor is chosen.

NAACP Meet With L.R. Businessmen

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — It has been confirmed that two officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People met with eight Little Rock business and professional men June 12 to present "grievances."

Dr. Jerry D. Jewell, president of the Little Rock NAACP chapter, confirmed the meeting, which was revealed in the latest issue of Gov. Orval E. Faubus' weekly newspaper, the Arkansas States-NAACP had met only once with the group and had not heard from them since. He said he and Bates had asked for a "progress report" by July 10.

Jewell said the grievances included requests for equal opportunities for Negroes at businesses serving the public, in employment and for promotions on the basis of merit rather than race.

Warmer weather and a chance of more showers were in the Arkansas forecast today after a weekend respite in most areas from showers which peppered the state last week.

Maximum temperatures for today were forecast in the 86 to 94 degree range after a week in which the maximums stayed generally in the 80s.

Warning of the coming warm spell was reflected in Sunday's maximums which ranged from 84 at Harrison to 92 at Texarkana.

Sunday night's lows ranged from 65 at Harrison to 72 at Pine Bluff and tonight's minimums were forecast in the same range.

The only rainfall reported in the state during the 24-hour period ending at 6 a. m. today was .25 inch at Fort Smith and .02 inch at El Dorado.

Moore, special agent in charge of the FBI in Little Rock, was the luncheon speaker today.

Dr. John L. Ferguson, executive secretary of the Arkansas History Commission, will speak at noon Saturday.

"Why Change from Letterpress to offset" will be the topic of one of several panel discussions.

Man Charged With Slaying in Jackson

By JOHN HALL

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Byron de Beckwith, a 42-year-old former tobacco salesman and more recently a chemical fertilizer sales agent, from Greenwood, Miss., talked with his attorneys, law partners Hardy Lott and Stanny Sanders of Greenwood, Sunday and was returned to his cell after about 30 minutes. He is being held without bond.

Jackson chief of detectives M.B. Pierce said police questioned Beckwith, but did not elaborate. One of 15,000 telescopic sights and a fingerprint on it led the FBI to Beckwith at Greenwood. They found five of the imported Japanese six-power Golden Hawk sights went to Mississippi, all to a Grenada gun dealer.

One was traced to Beckwith, a gun collector, whom the FBI questioned Friday night without getting any answers. Saturday night at a meeting arranged by Greenwood attorney Yerger Moorehead, a relative of Beckwith, FBI agents arrested Beckwith under provisions of the 1957 Civil Rights Act.

"Beckwith and others unknown conspired to injure, oppress and intimidate Medgar Evers in the free exercise and enjoyment of rights and privileges secured to him by the Constitution," the FBI said.

Evers was state field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Capt. Ralph Hargrove, chief of the Jackson police identification bureau, fingerprinted Beckwith Sunday and said his prints matched one on the scope attached to a .30-caliber rifle that fired the fatal shot.

It was Hargrove who first discovered the latent print—one invisible to the eye but brought out by chemicals.

Jackson detectives discovered the gun in mid-morning of June 12, about 10 hours after Evers was shot down in his driveway, in a honeysuckle thicket near where officers believe the shot was fired.

Beckwith, a member of the debarred segregationist Citizens Council and described as a man who hated Negroes, faces death in the state's gas chamber if convicted on the murder charge.

Adenauer, JFK Talk of NATO Nuclear Navy

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

BTNN (AP)—President Kennedy and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer today discussed problems involved in trying to create a multinational NATO nuclear navy and to strengthen the Atlantic partnership between the United States and Western Europe.

They met alone for two hours. Spokesmen for the two men also announced that they had talked over forthcoming East-West negotiations in Moscow on a nuclear test ban treaty. Their conference covered trade relations between the United States and the European Common Market as well.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said that the results of the talks continuing into the afternoon, will be published in a communique to be issued later today.

Kennedy, who received a loud and enthusiastic welcome from half a million Germans at the start of his European tour Sunday, went to Adenauer's office in the Palais Schaumburg in late morning. The two men talked with only interpreters present.

At the same time, in a separate meeting at the Palais Schaumburg, other U.S. and German officials went into problems of Berlin, conditions in Communist East Germany and the proposal for forming a multinational nuclear force.

Salinger said that the multinational force project was talked out in greater detail by the ministers than by the government chiefs. While he would not make any of the details public, it was understood that the U.S. and German leaders were seeking allied action on setting up the force.

Salinger denied that Kennedy was having any more back pain than usual. The President suffers with chronic back trouble.

Kennedy's back seemed to be troubling him as he knelt at Mass Sunday in Cologne Cathedral.

Despite overcast skies thousands of men, women and children were out again to see Kennedy drive the four miles from the American embassy community at Bad Godesberg to Adenauer's office.

Kennedy was reported anxious to get agreement from Adenauer and other key allied leaders to open detailed negotiations soon on the NATO nuclear surface fleet.

Too Much Beer, Too Much Sun

JONES BEACH, N.Y. (AP) — Police broke up a free-for-all in a beach parking lot Sunday and hauled off 10 bathing-suit-clad young men on disorderly conduct charges.

"Too much beer, too much sun and too much youth," was one park policeman's description of the disturbance involving about 100 youths fighting with fists and beer cans.

A few black eyes and bloody noses were the only injuries. The arrested youths, all white, were jailed in Mincola to await arraignment today.

Southerners Find Some Backing

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP) — Should the federal government be able to tell privately owned businesses which cater to the public that they can't discriminate against Negroes?

President Kennedy says yes. He asked Congress to pass a law which says yes, too. This part of his civil rights program, unfolded last week, will bring one of the toughest fights in Congress.

Southern Democrats are against it. But some Republican leaders—like Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Barry Goldwater of Arizona—balk at it, too.

Kennedy did not ask that every last business, no matter how small, be compelled to stop discriminating. But it seems likely almost every business could be affected.

If Congress did pass such a law, it would not automatically stop discrimination by business places. Those who wanted to spend money fighting it could go to court.

This is an explanation of what Kennedy asked, how it would work, and what it is based on. Everything Kennedy said hinges on two sections of the Constitution.

1. The 14th Amendment. It says state authorities — this includes local authorities—must treat all citizens equally.

2. The commerce clause. This empowers the federal government—and the Supreme Court has long upheld this—to regulate interstate commerce or prevent interference with it.

Kennedy asked Congress to invoke both these constitutional provisions in passing the kind of law he wants.

The 14th Amendment says only that states must treat all citizens equally and cannot discriminate. The Supreme Court ruled in 1883 that the amendment does not outlaw discrimination by private businesses, like hotels, or theaters. This year the court, under the same amendment, said states or local communities cannot compel private businesses to discriminate.

It might seem, from those two decisions, that private businesses can do as they please about refusing to serve Negroes.

Not quite. There can hardly be a business in any place or of any size which is permitted to

Navy to Send

A 10-foot wide yellow buoy, named Bagel II because it resembles a bagel, or doughnut, marks the descent spot of Trieste. The buoy is held taut by a half-inch nylon line weighted with two old locomotive wheels of 750 pounds each. It is equipped with electronic fingers and sonar equipment to serve as a guide for Trieste.

Dr. Joseph L. Worzel, chief scientist aboard the Lamont Observatory research vessel Conrad which planted the buoy, said the ship's under-water camera photographed debris as recently as Sunday morning.

He described the new find as a "Big chunk of debris," but refused to elaborate pending an examination of the photograph by Navy officials in Washington.

Capt. Andrews said other significant pieces of debris photographed or recovered from the key area were a battery plate and a sheet of metal measuring about 120 square feet. He said the battery plate dragged to the surface was of the type used inside the pressure hull in Thresher class submarines.

A Navy court of inquiry last week reported destruction of the atomic submarine most likely resulted from the rupture of an engine room pipe under heavy sea pressure.

Adenauer, JFK

the President would like to get a treaty ready for submission to the U.S. Senate by next January.

The United States and West Germany agree on the need for such a force. The problem facing Kennedy and Adenauer is now to obtain the agreement of other allies, particularly Britain and Italy. Neither the President nor the chancellor wants an exclusively German-American nuclear force, officials said.

The President was reported to be in excellent spirits following the triumphant welcome he received Sunday as he journeyed from Wahn Airport in brisk sunny weather through the crowded streets of Cologne and Bonn. More than half a million people cheered his progress, and members of his party agreed his trip had gotten off to a highly successful start.

Looking at the clamoring thousands at one point, Kennedy said: "Gee whiz, it's too bad these people aren't American voters."

"It certainly was a nice welcome," he told German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schröder. "It could not have been better."

For most of the long, slow automobile trip, which ran from mid-morning until mid-afternoon, when he arrived at the U.S. Embassy residence in nearby Bad Godesberg, television carried the scene all over Western Europe. Kennedy's words were carried to millions within and beyond the borders of Germany.

The President did not mention French President Charles de Gaulle by name. But much that he said was designed to answer De Gaulle's argument that Western Europe needs its own independent nuclear force or national forces—such as France is building—because it cannot rely on U.S. protection in some future crisis with the Soviet Union.

Kennedy aimed a direct blow at De Gaulle's challenge on this point in his very first statement. Responding to Adenauer's welcome at the Wahn Airport, he told the Europeans:

"So long as our presence is desired and required, our forces and commitments will remain. For your safety is our safety, your liberty is our liberty, and any

Big Names Rerun by Sullivan

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Ed Sullivan celebrated his 15th anniversary in television Sunday night with a 90-minute show stitched together from old Sullivan show appearances captured on film and video tape.

The program was not exactly representative of his CBS program through the years—no drill teams, animal acts, or acrobats and no one did an imitation of Sullivan. But there were a lot of star names.

There was an awkward bit of conversation between Sullivan and Clark Gable, quips, if I remember rightly, from something plugging a Gable movie. There was a mad sketch made in 1951 with Jackie Gleason—then almost a skinny fellow—and Art Carney.

Gary Cooper played a scene from a movie. Jack Benny came up with a miser gag. Fred Astaire danced. There were Russian dancers, short takes from a lot of comedians.

Anyway, it proved that 15 years is a long time.

NBC had rough going covering the National Open golf playoff Sunday. The three players were far from any television cameras when the network coverage started at 4:30 p.m.

The announcers chatted nervously and endlessly for almost an hour, helped out by showing video tapes of Saturday's play. When the players finally reached the cameras, NBC was forced to postpone "Meet the Press" an hour later than scheduled. Last week, "Meet the Press" lost out completely to golf, but this week's interview was with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and NBC wasn't about to knock him off the air.

Warns JFK of Pressure Tactics

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BLITHEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The outgoing president of the Arkansas Bar Association has told President Kennedy that intimidation of the federal government by pressure groups could lead to destruction of American government.

Oscar Fendler of Blitheville, one of 244 lawyers who attended a civil rights conference at the White House Friday, said he told Kennedy violence would be the result of any such intimidation because, "Persons of other persuasions will organize similar activities and these opposing groups will clash."

Fendler said the resulting social and legal breakdown would cause a clamor for federal intervention, resulting in martial law.

"This will be a step toward destruction of American government," he said.

Fendler recounted his remarks in a telephone interview with The Associated Press. He emphasized that they were made as an "Arkansas lawyer" and not as president of the Arkansas Bar Association.

Fendler was one of three Arkansas lawyers to attend the meeting. He said approximately 60 members of the group were from the South and 40 to 50 of the 244 were Negroes.

The others who attended from Arkansas were Louis L. Ramsay of Pine Bluff, incoming president of the Arkansas Bar Association, and Edwin L. Wright of Little Rock, chairman of the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association.

Ramsay said the president's comments on racial problems facing the nation were very general and that the president's remarks generally were well received.

"I didn't ask to go up there," Wright said. "I have no comment."

Fendler said Kennedy gave the group an outline of racial tensions over the past few months and urged the establishment of local groups to help avoid such tensions.

"The President asked the group to urge Negro youths to stay in school so that they might receive the training necessary to get and hold jobs," Fendler said. "He also urged the formation of bi-racial committees to try to work out problems without demonstrations and he asked us to urge Negroes to join bar associations."

Atlantic City Choice of Democrats

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atlantic City, N.J., appeared to be surging to the front today as Democrats got down to the choice of a site for their 1964 presidential nominating convention.

If the East Coast city were picked, the two major parties would meet on opposite sides of the continent. The Republican National Committee, meeting in Denver Saturday, picked San Francisco for its convention site.

San Francisco also was bidding for the Democratic convention. It had the support of radio-television networks which pulled for conventions in the same city to avoid transferring equipment.

Chicago and Philadelphia remained in the running for the Democratic convention. There were some reports that President Kennedy preferred Chicago, but Atlantic City's financial bid for the meeting was highly attractive. Baltimore, Detroit and Miami Beach-Miami also were bidding for the convention.

An objection to consideration of Baltimore came from Mrs. Juanita Jack Mitchell, chairman of the Maryland branches of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

She said in Baltimore that she had telegraphed the Democratic National Committee that Baltimore should not be considered until the city and state "accord to all citizens and travelers within our borders the equal protection of the law."

Maryland has a law barring racial discrimination in hotels and restaurants but about half the counties are exempted from it.

10 Register for Economics Course

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—About 10 teachers and educators, some from out of state, registered Sunday for a three-week course in economics and conservation.

The course, conducted by the Arkansas State Council on Economic Education, started today.

Gerald L. Fersh, associate director of the National Council on Economic Education, Professor Calvin Gall of the University of Connecticut and Professor Meno Lovenstein of Ohio State University are directing the course.

$215,000 U.S. Loan to Waldron

WASHINGTON (AP)—The

Area Redevelopment Administration has approved a $215,000 grant and a $215,000 loan to Waldron, Ark., to assist it in enlarging its water supply.

The agency told Rep. James Trimble, D-Ark., and Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., today that it will announce Tuesday its approval of the grant and loan.

The loan and grant, are contingent upon approval by the Senate Public Works Committee of the Poteau River Watershed Project, which is tied in with the city's water supply program.

The watershed project, to cost $5,391,430, was approved last week by the House Public Works Committee. Approval by the Senate committee is now all that is needed to complete congressional authorization.

The Poteau River Watershed Project would involve a federal expenditure of $4,076,910 and a local contribution of $1,304,520. It covers 188,000 acres in Scott County, Ark., and Leflore County, Okla.

The ARA said its funds would enable the city to serve a poultry plant which expects to enlarge and provide 226 new jobs.

Fulbright said he would urge the Senate committee to act quickly on the watershed project.

Says Race View Must Be Changed

DALLAS (AP)—Brooks Hays,

former Arkansas congressman who is a special assistant to President Kennedy, said Wednesday this country must reexamine its view on race.

"If we fall out among ourselves," he said, "we may be lost."

Hays told members of a Dallas civic club that he spoke "as a citizen of a city (Little Rock) which has experienced racial turbulence."

"I love the Soviet and its valid traditions, but some old traditions have become outmoded. The paternal kindness of the 19th century is not adequate to the dynamics of the 20th Century."

"Communications must not be lost between the races. This is the key."

He expressed concern about growing blocs of extremists among both whites and Negroes.

President to Be Very Safe in Europe

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—When President Kennedy visits Europe he's going to be just about as safe as if he stayed home.

In fact, he would stay home if there were any question about his safety—the U.S. Secret Service would see to that.

The Secret Service, by law, is charged with protecting the President anywhere. And it does so in shifts around the clock, at a palace or embassy abroad as it does at the White House in Washington.

In this country, the Secret Service has the sole responsibility for safeguarding the President, although it also calls on local and state police and occasionally the military for assistance. On trips to other countries, the foreign counterpart of the Secret Service is responsible technically for the security of the President. But actually it is the Secret Service that sets forth the security requirements, working in close cooperation with its opposite number abroad.

When a President travels in other lands, the sharp-eyed, well-built young men constantly by his side, draw exclamations from crowds. Foreigners always figure they are FBI men or G-Men. But the FBI has no specific authority for guarding the President.

Congress put this power in the hands of the Secret Service years ago. The Secret Service is an agency of U.S. Treasury Department, and one of its other major duties is running down counterfeiters.

As on all presidential trips the one to Europe which begins Saturday night is being checked out carefully by an advance party which includes Secret Service agents. These agents and plenty of others—the White House doesn't wish to advertise the exact number—will accompany Kennedy when he starts his 10-day travels to West Germany, Ireland, Britain and Italy.

Guests lectures from the fields of business, labor, politics and economics will include Henry Ford II, Interior Secretary Stewart Udall and David Bell, administrator of the Agency for International Development.

The purpose of the course is to prepare teachers for linking economics and conservation with other classroom studies.

Play Safe With Outdoor Barbecue

The Hempstead County Health

Department, in cooperation with the National Fire Protection Association, offers the following timely warning: Don't barbecue yourself along with the steed.

That's a piece of advice to backyard chefs from the National Fire Prevention Association, which urges that you mix your savory meat safely with a strong dash of fire safety precautions.

Burn casualties among both cooks and consumers are frequent and sometimes serious, according to the international non-profit organization. The worst accidents are likely to happen, it says, when the backyard chief "freshens" an already-started fire with kerosene, paint thinner, alcohol or the liquids sold as an aid to starting a charcoal fire. The moment one of these liquids hits alive coal, there's a wosh of flame which can envelope the arms and face of anyone nearby in searing blistering fire.

Play it safe with these rules: Never add any kind of a flammable liquid to an already-burning fire. Any starting liquids you use before a fire is lighted, use sparingly—and never use gasoline. Keep any containers holding these liquids far removed from the fire.

Keep youngsters at a safe distance too, the NFPA adds. Lightweight summer clothing, especially the frilly party dresses little girls sometimes wear, can be hazardous around any fire or open flame.

Girl Killed When Hit by a Truck

MOUNTAIN HOME, Ark. (AP)—

A 19-year-old Mountain Home girl was struck by a pickup truck and killed instantly Thursday night as she and a companion walked beside Highway 178 in Lakeview, 12 miles northwest of Mountain Home.

Sheriff Emmett Edmonds identified the victim as Mary Ann Banning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Banning.

The companion, Vickie Everett of Mountain Home, was not injured, but she was hospitalized at Mountain Home, suffering from shock.

Edmonds quoted the driver of the truck, Virgil Hodge of Lakeview, as saying he was meeting a car and did not see the girls.

Violations Check

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harold H. Chastain, chief examiner of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board at Little Rock, is one of four men whom the House Government Operations Committee has asked the Justice Department to check for violations of federal statutes dealing with the disclosure of information from federal tax forms.

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP)—Seven persons met the noon deadline Thursday for filing for seven posts on the Newport City Manager board to be elected July 30. Four of the positions were left unopposed. Candidates filing for positions were Harry Minton, alderman Gene Salemfried, R. Z. Wilk, inson, Neil Ward, Billy IvEdwin S. Elphinstone and H. L. Hose, a Negro.

Miss Booneville Is Selected

BOONEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—

Charla Ray, 18, won over five other contestants Thursday night for the title of "Miss Booneville."

She will represent Booneville in the Miss Arkansas Pageant at Hot Springs. The brown-eyed beauty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ray of Booneville.

Doris Chew, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Chew of Waldron, was named runner-up.

President to Call on Pope

WASHINGTON (AP)—President

Kennedy is expected to call on the new Pope while he is in Italy from June 30 to July 2.

The White House withheld any formal announcement, but informed sources said it is almost certain that Kennedy will visit Paul VI, who was elected today as head of the Roman Catholic Church.

Seven Candidates

3 of 4 Launchings Are Successful

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE

BASE, Calif. (AP)—Of four Titan II launchings from this West Coast base, three have proved successful.

The latest satisfactory firing took place Thursday as one of the big intercontinental missiles—the Air Force's most powerful weapon—roared from a concrete silo and disappeared down the Pacific Missile Range.

JFK Didn't Go All Out in Request

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The civil rights program President Kennedy has handed Congress is the most far-reaching of his presidency but he still avoided going all out.

For the first time in this century Congress passed some civil rights legislation in 1957. It passed some more in 1960. Both times it was mild. Congress seems sure to pass some of Kennedy's program this year for one main reason:

Racial tension in the United States is far more critical than at any time.

But Kennedy didn't propose—although he said he supported the idea—a fair employment practices commission which could compel employers everywhere not to discriminate against Negroes in hiring or firing.

Nor did he propose sweeping authority for the attorney general to start court action against anyone who deprived any citizen of his civil rights.

There was so much opposition to both an FPC and this kind of broad authority for the attorney general that neither of these ideas seems to have a chance in Congress. Yet, Negro leaders would like to see both become law.

Altogether Kennedy has made eight principal proposals in 1963 five Wednesday, three earlier. They have broad scope, which is a contrast to anything he proposed since becoming President.

His reluctance until now about pushing for meaningful civil rights legislation appeared to be based on the hope that if he didn't anger the Southern Democrats with civil rights bills they might be nice to him on other programs he wanted.

He was forced into his present position by the increasing actions and demands of Negroes. But just how much he gets out of what he has asked depends on a number of factors—starting with himself.

How hard will he fight for what he asked? Here are some of the other factors:

Will enough Republicans join enough Northern Democrats to smash a Southern filibuster to pass a civil rights program that has any real meaning?

The Southerners will fight. If they fight hard enough, they may endanger some of Kennedy's other programs. If then Kennedy feels he has to pacify them by making concessions, he'll get far less than he asked.

And, no one can predict the racial situation in the next few months. A race riot might scare Congress into approving a far broader civil rights bill than it would otherwise consider.

Kennedy's three earlier requests to Congress were on strengthening protection of Negroes' voting rights; continuing the life of the Civil Rights Commission; and providing technical and financial aid to school districts which were trying to desegregate but, because they were, needed help.

Wednesday's five proposals covered these fields:

1. Guaranteeing equal accommodations in public facilities like hotels and restaurants.

2. Empowering the attorney general to take court action against segregated schools if the Negro parents, whose children had been excluded, were too poor or afraid to act by themselves.

(Some lawyers don't believe the attorney general needs any special law to take such action, that he can act now any time he pleases under the 14th Amendment which guarantees all people equal treatment.)

3. Various steps to get fairer and fuller employment, like more money for programs to train Negroes in jobs, various actions by the government and its top people to get cooperation in cutting down job discrimination.

(Vigorous action by the Kennedy administration could certainly reduce or eliminate discrimination in jobs where government contracts are involved.)

4. Kennedy asked Congress to create a community relations service—he said he'd create one himself until Congress gave it a formal blessing—to work with racial groups in cities around the country to end discrimination.

5. And he asked Congress to pass a single comprehensive law that says the federal government is not required to furnish any kind of financial help to any program or activity in which there is racial discrimination.

(One authority on civil rights legislation said this president has that power now and doesn't need a specific law on it.)

It was on the first of Kennedy's proposals Wednesday — guaranteeing equal accommodations in public facilities—that Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana began the watering down process.

His idea is that any crackdown on business establishments practicing segregation should be limited to those dealing in a "substantial" way with interstate products or travelers.

This would mean that any making under a certain figure couldn't be touched. The Republican Senate Leader, Everett Dirksen of Illinois, had already said he could not support a proposal to integrate private businesses.

Urban Renewal

HARRISON, Ark. (AP) — The Harrison Urban Renewal agency says it has bought 124 parcels of land since the Crooked Creek rehabilitation project was started in June, 1962. The agency said the land cost $1,207,412. It estimated 25 more parcels would be needed for the project.

For the year ending March 31, 1971, 458 steamboats touched Little Rock.

Boros Oldest Man to Win Nat'l Open

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP) — Julius (Moose) Boros, the oldest man ever to win the National Open golf tournament, is a hulk, plodding, pleasant fellow who rarely shows emotion but lifts a disdainful eyebrow when anyone mentions the Big Three.

"I felt a little reluctant to accept that big check," Boros quipped with $16,000 in his baggy pants after a 1-under par 70 Sunday had swept him to his second Open title in a three-way playoff with ailing Arnold Palmer and young Jack Cupit.

"I thought it was already in the bank for one of the Big Three," Boros wouldn't dwell on the subject but it was plain he shared the feeling of many professionals that the public has been led unjustly to believe that golf starts and stops these days with Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player. The fact that he whipped the mighty Palmer by six shots-even though Arnold was off his feed, said he felt lousy and rushed away from the course with hardly a word-obviously was a great satisfaction to the 6-foot, 200-pound veteran from Connecticut.

Since Boros turned professional in 1947, he has performed as well as anyone in America's premier championship with nine finishes in the top 10. He has won the Open twice, the first time in 1952, and has been second twice, third once, fourth twice, fifth once and ninth once.

Although at 43 he is 10 years older than any of the Big Three and 20 years older than Nicklaus, who failed to make the 36-hole cut here while Player ended back in the pack; Boros has been the finest player on the PGA tour in the last two months. He has won three championships since May 12, beginning with the Colonial National Invitation and continuing through the Buick Open before the big one, and in that period alone has pocketed nearly $45,000 of his 1963 total of $39,680. His career earnings top $300,000.

"He is a great player," said Cupit, who finished three strokes behind Boros with a 2-over-par 73. "I think he rates as one of the best three players in golf right now."

With Cupit away shakily and Palmer far off his game and finally out of it completely with a triple bogey 7 at the 11th hole, Boros took control with birdies after brilliant close-in iron shots on

Travelers Get a New Hurler

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Jack Hamilton, the 24-year-old right-handed pitcher optioned to the Arkansas Travelers by Philadelphia, is expected to arrive in Little Rock early this week.

Hamilton, the 24-year-old right-hander, had a 9-12 record in 1962 and an earned run average of 5.09. He walked 107, leading the National League in bases on balls, and struck out 101.

Bennett, who had been recuperating from an automobile accident, was placed on the Phillies' active list Saturday.

Travelers Make It 4 Over Buffalo

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sparkling relief by Rich Quiroz and a 2-hit shutout by Paul Brown against Columbus Sunday gave Arkansas a 4-game winning streak to throw against Buffalo in an International League baseball game at Little Rock tonight.

The Travelers 8-4 and 1-0 victories over Columbus in Sunday's doubleheader marked their first two victories of the year and gave them a clean sweep of their 4-game series with the Jets.

Quiroz, who allowed only three hits in the last 6 1/3 innings of the first game, relieved starter Bobby Locke, who was suffering from a blistered finger.

The Travelers picked up a 5-0 lead in the second inning on homers by John Herrstein and Bob Lipski.

In the second game, a seven-inning affair, Rex Johnson spoiled Brown's no-hitter when he grounded a single past third with one away in the sixth.

Arkansas got its winning run when Bobby Malmkus and Wayne Graham singled to center and Malmkus scored on an outfield out and a sacrifice fly by Cal Emery. Columbus 002 000 200-4 7 1 Arkansas 051 001 10x-8 9 0

He Got Self Defense Trophies

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Police

are looking for a man who got his self-defense trophies the easy way over the weekend.

He broke into the Don San judo school and stole three trophies, valued at $45, from a display case.

The fourth and fifth holes. He ran in a 10-foot uphill curling putt for another birdie at the ninth to make the turn in a 2-under-par 33 and then clinched matters with a 10-footer for a birdie at the 17th when Cupit was making a mild challenge.
